This cozy bungalow in Hillside is a great way to enter the real estate market for a new Buyer or as an investment property. There have been numerous upgrades to the home through the years including windows, a furnace (control panel replaced fall 2022) electrical panel and upgrade to 100 Amp, new sewer line to City services at the street and a new clothes dryer in spring 2023. There is a tenant in place until July 2025 at $920/month + utilities. The yard is very large and the lot is zoned RT making future development possible.
